

WORSHIP

Entrance Antiphon: My eyes are always on the Lord, for he rescues my feet from the snare. Turn to me and have mercy on me, for I am alone and poor.

First Reading: Exodus 20:1–17

Responsorial Psalm: Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:22–25

Gospel Acclamation: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory! God loved the world so much, he gave us his only Son, that all who believe in him might have eternal life. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Gospel: John 2:13–25

Communion Antiphon: The sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for her young: by your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they who dwell in your house, for ever singing your praise.

Next week: Fourth Sunday of Lent, Year B

First Reading: 2 Chronicles 36:14–16, 19–23

Second Reading: Ephesians 2:4–10

Gospel: John 3:14–21

Dear Friends,

RECONCILIATION (CONFESSION)

Lent is a time when we are encouraged to make use of the sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession). As well as the many times provided in the parish for individual Reconciliation (the first form), this year, we are offering the second form of the Rite. On Friday 23 March (the Friday before Holy Week), there will be a Penitential Service at 7pm at the Cathedral of St Francis Xavier. This is a special time to help us prepare for a good Confession as well as experiencing healing as a community.

A Penitential Service will be followed by the opportunity of individual Confessions. There will be many priests able to speak different languages available. All welcome and encouraged to be present.

DULWICH/BURNSIDE COMMUNITY ASSEMBLY

I would like to invite you to come to a gathering at 2.30pm on Palm Sunday in the Dulwich Hall. I would love to reflect with you all on how we can best serve our community, improve our parish life and move forward building up the church family within the district of Dulwich/Burnside.

I would love to reflect with you all under the guidance of the Holy Spirit and it will be great to see as many as possible come and be together.

Our church is forever needing renewal as we face the challenges of our times. With Christ there is always a new day and a fresh start. There is always great hope.

It is my intention to call all individual communities together at various times this year, namely Holy Name St Peters, St Mary's Lower North Adelaide, Queen of Angels Thebarton and The Cathedral.

Peace be with you.

Yours in Christ,

Fr Charles Gauci

Adelaide Cathedral Parish Administrator

SUNDAY LUNCH AT THE CATHEDRAL WILL NOW BE HELD ONCE A MONTH ON THE SECOND SUNDAY OF EVERY MONTH

You are invited to join fellow parishioners for a shared meal and some social activities in the Cathedral Hall straight after the 11am Mass once a month on the second Sunday of every month. Please bring some food with you which can be shared with others. All welcome. Morning tea will continue to be available after both the 9am and 11am Masses. BOOK LAUNCH

Prophetic Pastoral Leadership: the Adelaide Archdiocesan Pastoral Team 1986-2001

This book, by Paul Hawkes, describes the context of renewal within the archdiocese, the formation of team ministry, and many other aspects, including the impact of our shared story of collaboration and consultation. Prophetic Pastoral Leadership will be launched on Sat 10 March, 2pm–3.30pm, at St Peter Claver Church Hall, cnr Stuart Rd & Grandview Gr, Dulwich. There will be time to mingle with friends and share stories over tea and coffee, as well as purchase a copy of the book ($20). At approximately 2.45pm, Dawn Sullivan, Executive Officer, Diocesan Pastoral Council in mid-1980s to mid-1990s, will invite Archbishop Leonard Faulkner to launch the book. RSVP Geraldine: sacc1@picknowl.com.au for launch and book purchase. Cost $20, plus P&P.

CATHEDRAL PARISH INFANT BAPTISM PROGRAM

WELCOME & BLESSING

The people of God, that is the Church, made present in the local community, has an important part to play in the baptism of both children and adults. Before and after the celebration of the sacrament, the child has a right to the love and help of the community ... the community exercises its duty when it expresses its assent together with the celebrant after the profession of faith by the parents and godparents. In this way it is clear that the faith in which the children are baptised is not the private possession of the individual family, but it is the common treasure of the whole Church of Christ.

Please join us in welcoming and praying for the following infants and their families as they prepare for their baptism:

9am Sunday Mass St Francis Xavier Cathedral

Alexander Jacob Davies

11am Sunday Mass St Francis Xavier Cathedral

Marc Agerico Xavier Lineage, Nguyen Khoi Le, Nathaniel Jackson Davies Argent, Evelyn Miriam Davies Argent, and Ignacy Patrick McAllinden

PRAYER FOR FAMILIES

Lord Jesus,

We pray that these families may always know the power of your presence in their lives. As they bring their children to be baptised into this community may they experience a sense of belonging and know of our prayers and support, so that together we may all help to make you present to our world. Amen.

Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

- 1st Holy Communion classes continue today at 11am.
- As part of our preparation for Easter this year we are holding a weekly class 'Through Lent with the Church Fathers' on Mondays at 7.30pm. The next class is this Mon 5th March. All welcome.
- There will be a regular Holy Hour on Tuesday mornings from 10.15–11.15am during school terms.
- The Youth Group will be having a fundraising Car Wash next Sunday, 11th March after the 9.15am Mass. $10/car, $15/van. Proceeds will go to Project Compassion.
- Project Compassion giving boxes and envelopes are available from the doors of the church.
- In your prayers this Lent please remember George and Taylah who will be baptised this Easter, and James and Carol who will be received into full communion with the Catholic Church.
- The 2018 Latin Mass Community Calendar is now available at the doors of the Church. Please take a copy home.
- The award-winning Fraternity CD Requiem is available for purchase from the Lighthouse stall in the meeting room.
- Please remember the sick in your prayers, especially Anne Russell, Germaine Mierhik, Vincenza Martucci (Ines Barson's mother), Margaret Roberts and Trevor Dawes. Please remember also the recently deceased and also those whose anniversaries occur about this time.
- Just a reminder that all children need to be accompanied to and from the toilet, ideally by an adult family member. Please be careful of small children when exiting the car park after Mass and a reminder to all parents to watch their children after Mass. It would be appreciated if you could park at the back of the car park near the creek first and avoid parking in the numbered spaces in front of Ellengowan Hall. There is more car parking available in St Peter's Street (across Payneham Rd), and also across the creek (off Nelson St). Thank you for your understanding.

VOLUNTEER WITH PALMS AUSTRALIA

Get out there and be the Church," bruised, hurting and dirty"

Palms Australia

Do you have teaching, medical, business, admin or trade skills? Ever thought of sharing them with our global family to reduce poverty and make a fairer world? Palms volunteers help build capacity of overseas communities over the long term. They don't do quick fixes on short stays, but immerse themselves in another culture and exchange skills within trusting, mutually beneficial relationships. Right now, schools, clinics and community organisations in the Pacific, Asia and Africa seek volunteers to mentor their local personnel and develop communities sustainably. Are you ready to "Get out there?" Contact Christine at Palms on 02 9560 5333 or go to www.palms.org.au/volunteer/.

"MAHDI CAMPAIGN"

Parishioners will be aware of the "Mahdi Campaign" seeking to secure an invitation to apply for a protection visa for Mohammed Mahdi Rafee (Antony). Letters from parishioners, Catholic groups and some politicians have been sent to the Minister in support. We have now heard that the application is before the Minister. Mindful of the Parable of the Widow and the Unjust Judge (Luke 18:1-8), we encourage people to continue to write to the Minister with copies to their local Federal members in support of this application. Mahdi has sent his thanks to the people of the parish and others who have supported him by visiting him, writing to him and writing on his behalf. For details on how you can help, contact Br Martyn Paxton: 0426 884 800 or mpax1744@bigpond.net.au.

MAHDI RAFEE

We have had some inquiries about the Afghani refugee, Mohammad Rafi, who was in the news during the week and who will be sentenced in court soon. He is not the same person as our fellow parishioner, Mahdi Rafee, who is in immigration detention and whom we have been praying for.

MINISTERS AT THE CATHEDRAL FOR HOLY WEEK

If any Extraordinary Ministers, Readers or Mass Coordinators who haven't received an email are available for any of the Holy Week Ceremonies, could you please contact the Parish Office as soon as possible to notify them of your Ministry and which Mass/Masses you are available? Thank you.

LINEN DONATIONS TO SUPPORT THE HOMELESS

The CEO of the Adelaide Day Centre for Homeless Persons, which is based within our Parish boundaries, has requested donations of linen to assist their work with the homeless and those in insecure accommodation. The Centre would appreciate contributions of double and single bed sheets, pillow slips, tea towels, and bathroom towels. Items must be clean and in good condition. Please place your gift in the labelled containers in the porches of our churches over the next two weekends, 11 and 18 March. Members of the Umbrella Christian Social Action Group have visited the Catholic social justice providers in the city to identify whether our Parish can support their needs. With thanks for any contributions you can offer as part of our Lenten work for those who are less well-off. Julie Dow

NEW DEACON IN THE CATHEDRAL PARISH

The Archbishop has appointed Deacon Paul Crowe to minister within the Cathedral Parish. Deacon Paul was ordained for the Archdiocese of Hobart in Tasmania where he served for a number of years in various ministries. Deacon Paul is an orthodontist by profession and is married to Gordana who is South Australian by origin. They have a number of grown-up children who live in various parts of Australia. We welcome them both to our parish community.
