Inserted in the bulletin today are:

- Letter to the Faithful from Bishop Gregory O'Kelly SJ
- A message from Archbishop Philip Wilson

Dear Friends,

We have been through a challenging and somewhat confusing week. Our Archbishop has resigned after a long and difficult time for everyone involved. You will find two letters included as inserts inside this week's bulletin. The first is from Archbishop Wilson and the second is from Bishop Greg O'Kelly.

We, as the people of God know that over the last two thousand years the church has faced many challenges. It is important that we always remember the promise given to us by Jesus that the gates of hell will never prevail against the church and that Jesus is with us always, even up to the end of time.

We also remember the mission entrusted to us by Jesus to reach out to the vulnerable, the poor, the abused, the disadvantaged and all who are in need. This was central to the mission of Jesus himself and continues to be central to our mission.

More than ever we need to continue growing and maturing in the understanding and appreciation of our faith. What a privilege we have knowing Jesus as our most intimate and personal friend. What a privilege we have sharing this gift with all.

We remember that we know God when we truly love all others.

Yours in Christ

NATIONAL AWARENESS WEEK 5th—12th August 2018

The Church in Adelaide needs more priests and religious. Each one of us can do something about this. Firstly—pray each day. A simple prayer may be the cause of one person saying 'yes'. Secondly—talk about the possibility of a vocation to others. Lend your voice to the call of the Lord.

Special Collection Next Week:

To coincide with National Vocations Awareness Week, next week at all the Sunday Masses in our Parish there will be a special collection for Vocations. Through this appeal you will be contributing to the formation of Priests and the promotion of vocations for service in the Archdiocese.
