Interfaith Service of Prayer for Peace Today Sunday 24th March Cathedral 4pm

In response to the great tragedy in the Mosques in Christchurch in New Zealand, an interfaith service for peace will be held in our Cathedral this afternoon.

Members of different faith communities in Adelaide will gather to offer prayer in their traditions and to reflect on peace and harmony.

In the face of such evil acts, we often feel so helpless. But in gathering with people of other faiths we can give solidarity to those who communities which have suffered in New Zealand and people of other faiths who have experience terrorism and persecution around the world.

Freedom of religion, and the freedom to assemble in prayer with safety, are precious rights which belong to all. Come, pray, reflect, and seek peace together at 4pm today in the Cathedral.

Now everyone has clean water. Your contributions, added together brings about living miracles. Collect a box or set of envelopes today at the cathedral or church entrance.
