The Celebration of the Sacrament of Reconciliation

Lent, with its call to repentance and renewal, is the time when many Catholics wish to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. This Sacrament calls on us to reflect on our lives, to search our hearts, and to confess our sins with humility. Here we encounter a God, not of vengeance, but a God of Mercy.

Through the ministry of the Church, given through the apostles on Easter Sunday by the Risen Jesus, sin is forgiven, hope restored, peace given, and our Christian life made more dynamic.

Across the parish, every week, there are many opportunities to celebrate this Sacrament which are listed on the chart on page 3 of the Newsletter. But in Holy Week additional times are provided:

Cathedral
Monday	: 11.00 am to 12.00 pm
