Welcome Back Fr. Paul

We have the joy of welcoming back to the Cathedral Fr. Paul Cashen to celebrate the 11am Mass commemorating the 50th year of his ordination as a Missionary of the Sacred Heart priest. Fr. Paul was the administrator of the Cathedral Parish for 4 years. Today we give thanks for Fr. Paul's ministry in our parish and far beyond. Fr Paul has held various leadership roles within his Order and in Parishes across different parts of Australia and at the former St. Paul's National Seminary, Sydney.

Morning tea in the Cathedral hall will follow the 11 am Mass. Parishioners are invited to bring something to share.

We Welcome Fr. Joseph Raja to the Parish

Fr. Joseph takes up his appointment as Assistant Priest in the Cathedral parish this weekend. Fr Joseph assisted with weekday and some Sunday Masses at the Cathedral when he first arrived from India late last year and then moved to the Hectorville Parish as Assistant Priest. He comes to us with a broad range of pastoral ministry back in India.

Fr. Joseph will have primary responsibility within the St. Peter Claver and St. John Vianney communities on the weekends, and act as a support in the Cathedral during the week. We pray, Fr. Joseph, that your ministry will be fruitful and bring you much contentment as you serve in the name of Jesus. Welcome.

First Reconciliation

Parishioners are invited to pray for the 40 children of the parish who will celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time next Friday evening in the Cathedral at 7pm. This is an important point in their Christian life when in a personal way, through the ministry of the Church in the Sacrament, they experience the mercy and love of God.

They will celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation on the 8th November and then receive their First Holy Communion on the weekend 16th/17th November in their own communities across the parish. Please pray for these young parishioners, their parents, families and sponsors.

Sunday Morning Tea/Coffee (All are welcome)

At the Cathedral

Morning tea is served in the Hall after the 9am and 11am Masses. Parishioners and visitors are always welcome.

At St. John Vianney

Morning tea is served at the entrance after the 9am Mass.

At St. Mary's

Parishioners gather every week after the 9.30am Mass at Cibo on Melbourne Street for tea/coffee/hot chocolate (except on the 2nd Sunday of every month which will be held at the church following Mass).

At Queen of Angels

Morning tea on the 4th Sunday of every month and a light supper after the 6pm Mass on the 2nd Sunday of every month. Both are held in the church foyer. Please bring a plate along for supper.

Urgent Need for Volunteers 11am Morning Tea

At the moment we do not have any people coordinating the morning tea after the 11am Cathedral Mass. Could you (and a friend) volunteer – every week, fortnightly, once a month? This morning tea is popular and often sees visitors joining parishioners. Duties – put out milk and biscuits, serve tea and coffee, wash up, assist with stacking chairs and folding tables. (often other people also help). It is not heavy work, but it is much appreciated.

Thank you

The Community of Queen of Angels express their gratitude to Francesca Zampogna who has made a donation of $1000 towards the staircase fund for Queen of Angels Church.

Propagation of the Faith Appeal by Catholic Missions

There will be a special collection by the Catholic Missions for Propagation of the Faith on June 9 in the Parish. Please donate generously towards this cause. We thank you in advance for your contribution.

Safeguarding Children

Just a reminder that all children need to be accompanied to
