

ADELAIDE CATHEDRAL PARISH

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

22nd January 2023

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel passage (cf. Mt 4:12-23) recounts the beginning of Jesus' preaching in Galilee. He leaves Nazareth, a village in the mountains, and settles in Capernaum, an important centre on the lakeshore, inhabited largely by pagans, a crossroads between the Mediterranean and the Mesopotamian inland.

This choice indicates that the beneficiaries of his preaching are not only his compatriots, but those who arrive in the cosmopolitan "Galilee of the Gentiles" (v. 15, cf. Is 9:1): that's what it was called. Seen from the capital Jerusalem, that land is geographically peripheral and religiously impure because it was full of pagans, having mixed with those who did not belong to Israel.

Jesus' message reiterates that of the Baptist, announcing the "kingdom of heaven" (v. 17). This kingdom does not involve the establishment of a new political power, but the fulfilment of the Covenant between God and his people, which inaugurates a season of peace and justice. To secure this covenant pact with God, each one is called to convert, transforming his or her way of thinking and living.

This is important: converting is not only changing the way of life but also the way of thinking. It is a transformation of thought. What differentiates Jesus from John the Baptist is the way and manner. Jesus chooses to be an itinerant prophet. He doesn't stay and await people but goes to encounter them.

Jesus is always on the road! His first missionary appearances take place along the lake of Galilee, in contact with the multitude, in particular with the fishermen. There Jesus does not only proclaim the coming of the kingdom of God, but seeks companions to join in his salvific mission.

In this very place he meets two pairs of brothers: Simon and Andrew, James and John. He calls them, saying: "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men" (v. 19). The call reaches them in the middle of their daily activity: the Lord reveals himself to us not in an extraordinary or impressive way, but in the everyday circumstances of our life.

There we must discover the Lord; and there he reveals himself, makes his love felt in our heart; and there with this dialogue with him in the everyday circumstances of life — he changes our heart. The response of the four fishermen is immediate and willing: "Immediately they left their nets and followed him" (v. 20).

We know, in fact, that they were disciples of the Baptist and that, thanks to his witness, they had already begun to believe in Jesus as the Messiah (cf. Jn 1:35-42).

We, today's Christians, have the joy of proclaiming and witnessing to our faith because there was that first announcement, because there were those humble and courageous men who responded generously to Jesus' call.

On the shores of the lake, in an inconceivable land, the first community of disciples of Christ was born. May the knowledge of these beginnings give rise in us to the desire to bear Jesus' word, love and tenderness in every context, even the most difficult and resistant.

(Pope Francis' homilies)

Fr. Anthoni Adimai SdM

17 Feb: Adelaide Cathedral Parish Volunteer Thanksgiving Nite

The Administrator of the Adelaide Catholic Cathedral Parish cordially invites the volunteers of the parish to a Thanksgiving Mass and Dinner on 17 February 2023. The Cathedral Parish wouldn't be the parish it is without its volunteers. For the past two years, we've not been able to celebrate our volunteers who've worked doubly hard during and through the pandemic and its ever-changing nature.

This year, we are delighted to be able to host a Thanksgiving Nite for the Cathedral Parish Volunteers. The Celebration will begin with the 5.45pm Mass at the St. Francis Xavier Cathedral followed by evening tea in the Cathedral Parish Hall.

If you volunteer with the parish as a CLC member, Mass Coordinator, Reader, Eucharistic Minister, Choir Member, Musician, Sacristan, Altar server or any other role, then we would love to see you there. Please check the notice board for updates.

We will be having representatives of each church who you can register with to confirm that you will be attending the Volunteer night. We would like to thank you again for your dedication and service to the Parish and wish each you and your families a Holy and Blessed year ahead.
