

ADELAIDE CATHEDRAL PARISH

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year A

19th February 2023

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

In this Sunday's Gospel (Mt 5:38-48) — one of the passages that best illustrates Christian "revolution" — Jesus shows us the way of true justice through the law of love which is greater than the law of retaliation, "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth".

This ancient law imposed the infliction on wrongdoers of a punishment equivalent to the damage they caused: death for those who killed, amputation for those who injured, and so on. Jesus does not ask his disciples to abide evil, but asks them to react; however, not with another evil action, but with good.

This is the only way to break the chain of evil: one evil leads to another which leads to another evil... This chain of evil is broken and things truly begin to change. Evil is, in fact, a "void", a void of good. It is not possible to fill a void, except with "fullness", that is, good. Revenge never leads to conflict resolution. "You did this to me, I will do it back to you": this never resolves conflict, nor is it even Christian.

According to Jesus, the rejection of violence can also involve the sacrifice of a legitimate right. He gives a few examples of this: turn the other cheek, give up your coat or money, accept other sacrifices (v. 39-42).

But such sacrifice does not mean that the demands of justice should be ignored or contradicted. No, on the contrary, Christian love, which manifests itself in a special way in mercy, is an achievement superior to justice. What Jesus wants to teach us is the clear distinction that we must make between justice and revenge.

Distinguishing between justice and revenge. Revenge is never just. We are permitted to ask for justice. It is our duty to exercise justice. We are, however, not permitted to avenge ourselves or, in any way foment revenge, as it is an expression of hatred and violence.

Jesus does not wish to propose a new system of civil law, but rather the commandment to love thy neighbour, which also includes loving enemies: "Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you". (v. 44) And this is not easy.

These words should not be seen as an approval of evil carried out by an enemy, but as an invitation to a loftier perspective, a magnanimous perspective, similar to that of the Heavenly Father, who, Jesus says, "makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust". (v. 45). An enemy, in fact, is also a human being, created as such in God's image, despite the fact that in the present, that image may be tarnished by shameful behaviour.

When we speak of "enemies", we should not think about people who are different or far removed from us; let us also talk about ourselves, as we may come into conflict with our neighbour, at times with our relatives. How many hostilities exist within families — how many! Let us think about this. Enemies are also those who speak ill of us, who defame us and do us harm. It is not easy to digest this. We are called to respond to each of them with good, which also has strategies inspired by love.

Lenten Reflection Books 2023

The 2023 Lenten Reflection booklets are available in the foyer of all the churches in our Parish. The Psalm and Gospel readings for each Sunday in Lent are included in the booklet along with reflections written by clergy and lay people in our Archdiocese and small group questions that are suitable for secondary students to adults. We invite families and groups to use this booklet as you see appropriate by forming a weekly Lenten reflection hour, and encourage them to take home a copy for their own. The online version is at: <https://www.ofw-adelaide.org.au/publications.html>

Lenten program

You are invited to a different Lent experience. Based on a contemporary understanding of the Easter story, this program explores the place of the Gospel narratives in the development of faith and a mature spirituality. As an experience of Catholics travelling together on the Way of Jesus, it will deepen your relationship with him and broaden your spiritual vision. Each session will include prayer, reading, reflection, sharing and discussion. For further information and to register, email Kevin Liston. on Kevin.liston1@gmail.com or P: 0411197829

18/19 Feb: Project Compassion 2023

Please take home a Project Compassion box or set of donation envelopes to support Caritas Australia this Lenten season and help support vulnerable people around the world, now and For All Future Generations.

With your support, Caritas Australia has been able to support communities around the world to tackle poverty, food security, education, water and sanitation and disaster risk reduction. Project Compassion 2023 reminds us that the good that we do today will extend and impact the lives of generations to come.

As St Pope John Paul II said, "The future starts today, not tomorrow."

Together, we can help vulnerable communities face their challenges today and build a better tomorrow For All Future Generations.

You can donate through Project Compassion donation boxes and envelopes available from your parish, by visiting caritas.org.au/project-compassion, or by calling 1800 024 413.

19 Feb: Festival of Hymns

On Sunday 19 February at 1pm, James Lloyd, Cathedral Organist will give a free concert at the St Francis Xavier's Cathedral featuring well-loved hymns played on the magnificent Cathedral Casavant Frères pipe organ. You are warmly invited to both attend and join in singing. James is the regular organist at the Cathedral's 11 am Sunday Solemn Mass and his vibrant and effusive style has pleased Mass-goers for many years. This promises to be an afternoon of high entertainment and great delight for those who love music played on the Casavant Frère organ. The concert is part of the 2023 Fringe Organ Recitals program at the Cathedral.

Dulwich/ Burnside St. Vincent de Paul Conference say Thank You.

The Conference would like to extend their thanks to all parishioners who generously supported the Christmas Appeal by donating money, food and gifts for Christmas Hampers. Thank you to those people who helped with packing and delivering the hampers. Thanks to your generosity we were able to assist people in our local area plus provide assistance to the Mt Barker/ Strathalbyn, Elizabeth North and Elizabeth South Conferences. Your contributions certainly provided some Christmas cheer from the feedback we received. The people we delivered hampers to in our region were most grateful for the Coles gift cards that were so generously donated by parishioners.
