Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

At present there is no indication of the spread of coronavirus in South Australia. This offers us time to consider how we might respond to the virus before any urgency arises, and to play our part in preventing spread in the community.

After extensive consultation with medical experts, and in order to be well prepared I am implementing the following guidelines effective from this coming weekend, Sunday March 8th. I ask that parishes and communities throughout the Archdiocese of Adelaide and Diocese of Port Pirie observe the following temporary protocols until the risk of spread has passed:

- Ensure that shared church and office surfaces and equipment are kept clean with use of disinfectant. (Clinell Universal Wipes are effective and inexpensive.).
- Cease distribution of Holy Communion by Chalice for the time being.
- Cease distribution of Holy Communion on the tongue for the time being in order to avoid transfer of saliva.
- Ensure that all Ministers of Holy Communion clean their hands with an alcohol based gel or rub before and after distributing Holy Communion, and avoid all skin to skin contact.
- Temporarily empty Holy Water stoops of water.
- Make alcohol based gels or rubs available at entrances and around our churches and shared spaces.
- Avoid physical contact at the Sign of Peace for the time being.
- If anyone has been in contact with a coronavirus affected place or person within the last 14 days and is experiencing cold or flu like symptoms, remain away from Mass till the symptoms have passed or cleared by a doctor. Their Sunday Mass obligation will be met by a time of prayer at home.

I thank you for your support in implementing these temporary measures which may offer comfort to those who are experiencing any anxiety at this time, and will hopefully assist in supporting the general welfare of our Catholic and wider community.

Yours in Christ,

Bishop Gregory O’Kelly SJ
Apostolic Administrator

Fr Philip Marshall
Adm. Delegate

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Give me a drink (John 4:7)

Jesus and his disciples had been walking all morning. Now the sun was high in the sky and burning down on them. They were hot, dusty, and thirsty. As Jesus sat down next to Jacob’s well, he was probably looking forward to a cool drink of water. But when he asked a Samaritan woman who had come to the well to give him a drink, more was going on than Jesus just looking to quench his physical thirst. As St. Therese of Lisieux wrote, “When he said, ‘Give me a drink,’ it was the love of his poor creature that the Creator of the universe was seeking. He was thirsty for love.”

We might wonder why. Why would Jesus desire the love of someone who was not only a Samaritan but who had a checkered past. Because that’s who Jesus is. Like the Father and the Holy Spirit, Jesus loves each one of us. No matter who we are or what our sins, he who is love cannot help but seek after our love. He thirsts for all of us. We give Jesus the ‘drink’ he asks for. Even if we feel no different while we are praying, believe that we are delighting Jesus by our presence. Remember, he enjoys being us.

I believe our prayers are important especially at this time when the whole world struggles with coronavirus. Let us pray for God’s guidance to the whole world, world leaders, researchers, and health care personals.

Many blessings,

Music Notes from the Cathedral Choir

The Third Sunday in Lent affords us the time to focus again on the penitential aspects of the season. The Offertory hymn at 11am is Again we keep this Solemn Fast, with the text attributed to St Gregory the Great making it 1500 years old.

The tune is an adaptation by J. S. Bach, whose 350th birthday is on the 21st March. At the Vigil and 9am Masses we will Process in with CWB II 537 Lift high the Cross

The Processional at 11am this week is based closely on the actual Entrance Psalm, Psalm 24. It is CWB II number 632, O Lord I lift my soul. Our Lenten discipline will be all the more efficacious if we follow King David's advice and keep our 'eyes always on the Lord'.

We will sing Christians let us love one another (CWB II 469) and Glory and Praise (CWB II 491) at each Mass this weekend.

Again I remind you that the Mass settings are in the Catholic Worship Book and the relevant numbers you need are printed on the Mass sheet each week.

- Timothy Davey - Director of Cathedral Parish Music

Safeguarding Children

Just a reminder that all children need to be accompanied to and from the toilet, ideally by an adult family member. Kindly ensure that children are supervised by an adult family member in the carparks at all times.
