Dear Sisters and Brothers,

It is with great joy that we announce the Installation Ceremony for our incoming Archbishop Patrick O'Regan DD will take place in St Francis Xavier’s Cathedral at 10.30am on Monday, May 25th, the Solemnity of Our Lady Help of Christians, Patroness of Australia.

Because of the circumstances around COVID-19, this will be a modified ceremony, and will involve simply the officiating clergy and attendants.

Our plan is that when the restrictions and safety requirements around COVID-19 have eased, we will conduct a formal Liturgical Reception for the incoming Archbishop, hopefully associated with the Mass of Chrism.

Naturally, we regret the inability for this to be a large ceremony open to all members of the Archdiocese but everyone understands the reasons why this cannot be so.

The quarantine restrictions also prevent the attendance of the Apostolic Nuncio and the President of the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference, and virtually any other bishop. If Archbishop Wilson is well enough, he will be present on the sanctuary.

The presiding clergy will be Fr. Philip Marshall as Vicar General, Fr. Anthony Adimai as Cathedral Administrator, Monsignor Robert Rice as Senior Consultant, and myself, to whom the reading of the Bull of Appointment and the witnessing of the Profession of Faith and Oath of Fidelity of our new Archbishop has been delegated.

The event will be livestreamed, and hopefully numbers of you will be able to participate.

The news is a moment of joy and grace for the Archdiocese. Please include our incoming Archbishop in your prayers of hope and trust in the weeks ahead.

With every good wish and grace,

Yours in Christ,

Bishop Gregory O'Kelly S.J.
Apostolic Administrator,
Catholic Archdiocese of Adelaide.

Parish Masses Online

We are compiling a list of parishes and communities that are offering Masses online (via Websites, Facebook or Zoom). The list will be shared and available on the Archdiocesan website later this week. If you wish to have your parish listed, or notice they are not included once the link is live, please email events@adelaide.catholic.org.au to be added.
Dear Sisters and Brothers,

On this Third Sunday of Easter, the Church proclaims the Emmaus account. The two disciples were celebrating the Holy Eucharist with the Risen Christ. I would like to call your attention to the Holy Eucharist we celebrate today and be one of the disciples celebrating Mass with the Risen Christ. Let’s examine this Mass, which opened their eyes, and ponder how we also taste and see in every Mass.

Stage One: Gathering Rite – The curtain rises on this Mass with two disciples having gathered together on a journey: Now that very day two of them were going to a village seven miles from Jerusalem called Emmaus (Lk 24:13). And it happened that while they were conversing and debating, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them (Luke 24:15). It is essential to acknowledge by faith that when we gather together at Mass the Lord Jesus is with us. The celebrant (who is really Christ) says, “The Lord be with you.” In so doing He announces the presence of Christ among us promised by the Scriptures.

Stage Two: Penitential Rite – The two disciples seem troubled and the Lord inquires of them the source of their distress: What are you discussing as you walk along? (Lk 24:17). Clearly their sorrow and distress are governing their behaviour. Thus the Lord engages them in a kind of gentle penitential rite, engages them about their negativity. So, too, for us at Mass. The penitential rite is a moment when the celebrant invites us to lay down our burdens and sins before the Lord, who alone can heal us. Again, we see in this story about the two disciples on the road to Emmaus, the Mass that is so familiar to us.

Stage Three: Liturgy of the Word – In response to their concerns and struggles, the Lord breaks open the Word of God, the Scriptures: Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the scriptures (Luke 24:27). Not only does the Lord refer to Scripture, He interprets it for them. Hence the Word is not merely read; there is a homily, an explanation and application of the Scripture to the men’s struggles.

So, too, for us at Mass. Whatever struggles we may have brought, the Lord bids us to listen to His Word as the Scriptures are proclaimed. Then the homilist interprets and applies the Word to our life. Notice, too, that although the disciples do not yet fully see, their downcast attitude is gone; their hearts are now on fire.

Pray God, that it will be so for us who come to Mass each week and hear from God that the victory is already ours in Christ Jesus. God reminds us, through Scripture passages that repeat every three years, that although the cross is part of our life, the resurrection surely is, too.

We are carrying our crosses to an eternal Easter victory. If we are faithful to listening to God’s Word, hope and joy build within our hearts and we come, through being transformed by Christ in the Liturgy, to be men and women of hope and confidence.
