Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Happy Mother’s Day! Though we celebrate Mother’s day with social distancing measures in place, and limit in people gathering to celebrate during this time of pandemic COVID 19, let us celebrate Mother’s by greeting her, making her feel how important she is. Let us send our warmest Mother’s day wishes and greetings to make our loving mothers, grandmothers, wife or friend feel special. No job can replace our mothers, starting with morning feed, giving naps to us, teaching the way to read, and other life skills. Without mother our life will be full of darkness and out of track, so let us thank our mothers and celebrate her as the greatest gift from God.

HAPPY MOTHER’S DAY!

We are celebrating the fifth Sunday of Easter. All the readings of today’s celebration give us hope and comfort that we are God’s people and amidst of the pandemic COVID 19, God delivers us from the darkness of all fears, anxieties, and worries and leads us into His marvelous light.

The book of the Acts of the Apostles describes the birth and the infant days of the Church in Jerusalem. It is an account that inspires and consoles us as we are unable to gather as people of God to worship Christ and receive His Body and Blood sacramentally.

It was not human courage that enabled the Apostles to preach Christ as Messiah, Son of God, and Savior of the human race but the Holy Spirit. That same power and those same gifts of God’s love are with us still today in our Church.

We have every reason to be grateful to God for having given us faith. We should show this gratitude, by our love of neighbor, as the first Christians did. We should share the joy of being God’s people and amidst of the pandemic COVID 19, let us celebrate Mother’s day wishes and greetings to make our loving mothers, grandmothers, wife or friend feel special. No job can replace our mothers, starting with morning feed, giving naps to us, teaching the way to read, and other life skills. Without mother our life will be full of darkness and out of track, so let us thank our mothers and celebrate her as the greatest gift from God.

Many Blessings,
