- It will take you to a page that says TRANSACTION SUCCESSFUL and will send a booking confirmation to your email address. Your booking is now complete.
- We kindly request everyone who has access to the internet to make your own bookings. We also request you to please assist your friends, family and other parishioners at your church who may not be comfortable with using the internet to make online bookings. Bookings open weekly on a Monday at 9.30 am and close at 4.00pm on the Friday of the same week for that weekend ahead. This is because the office staff required time to email the booking lists for that weekend to the appropriate people. Bookings can be made for one week only at a time. If you do not have access to the internet please call the office on 82328688 from 9.30am to 4pm Monday to Friday and we will make the booking for you. There is no short cut for office staff who have to book via the same process on your behalf, so please be patient when you call. The lines may be busy with staff submitting information to the online booking system over the phone, especially on a Monday. Thank you for your patience and cooperation.

It would be appreciated if you could park at the back of the car park near the creek first and avoid parking in the numbered spaces in front of Ellengowan Hall. There is more car parking available in St. Peter’s Street (across Payneham Rd), and also across the creek (off Nelson Street). Thank you for your understanding.

Dear Sister and Brothers,

As the COVID 19 restrictions are slowly easing and we are able to welcome more parishioners to the celebration of the Eucharist, “Trust in God and letting go” is the theme of the 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time. Trusting God, as Jesus did, does not mean clinging to God; it means letting go of everything so as to surrender ourselves and our lives to God.

Jeremiah, in the first reading today, called at the early age of 23 to the prophetic office, prophesied in Jerusalem during the most critical period of Judah’s history.

The kings, priests, and people were much more interested in politics than in their God. They had been made subjects of Babylon and had to pay an annual tax to this foreign power. They were engaged in intrigue with Egypt whose help they sought to set them free. Jeremiah opposed this political scheme, foreseeing that Egypt would not help and that rebellion would bring nothing but the devastation of Judah and exile for its people. Jeremiah spoke out fearlessly against the disloyalty of the Chosen People of God, and foretold the destruction of the City and Temple, and also the Babylonian exile.

Because of this he was imprisoned for a time. Later it was decided to kill him, so he was dropped into a cistern, but a Chushite, a servant of the King Zedekiah, released him, with the King’s permission but unknown to the court officials. Eventually he was forcibly taken down to Egypt, and according to tradition, was murdered there by his own people. Prophet Jeremiah was not afraid because the Lord was on his side. Fear not, trust in God and let go. God bless you.
