Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Sunday on July 5th 2020

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday will be celebrated throughout Australia this Sunday despite NAIDOC week occurring later in the year. NATSICC feels it is important that we celebrate as Australians during these difficult times. A number of initiatives have been put in place to assist your schools and parishes to come together on July 5 (and in the week prior and following):

- Archbishop Pat O'Regan will celebrate a nationally live streamed Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday Mass at 11am. The link will be available at www.natsicc.org.au
- Parishes that are holding a physical Mass will be able to conduct an Acknowledgement using our Virtual Acknowledgement available at https://www.natsicc.org.au/2020-atsi-sunday.html
- Along with Torres Strait Islander hymns and interactive activities, youth resources for schools are also available at https://www.natsicc.org.au/2020-atsi-sunday.html

Apostleship of the Sea Appeal on July 11th/12th 2020

Next week is Sea Sunday, when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. The Stella Maris Apostolate has, for the past 100 years, responded to seafarers’ needs and has advocated on their behalf regardless of their colour or creed. By anyone’s standards, seafarers are burdened more than most other workers. They are in need, especially at this time of the pandemic, of the rest that Jesus promises in our Gospel theme. During this Covid-19 period, all these burdens have been exacerbated leading to extreme stress on seafarers working on cargo and cruise ships globally. During this Covid-19 time, Stella Maris chaplains, managers and volunteers have doubled their efforts around the Australian ports to serve these vulnerable confined seafarers when ships dock. There will be a special collection for Stella Maris, Apostleship of the Sea, the official maritime welfare agency of the Catholic Church next weekend. It provides practical and spiritual support to seafarers visiting our ports. We thank you for your generosity.

IMPORTANT: Printed copies of the Weekly Newsletter are to be taken home with you once you pick up a copy of the newsletter. Kindly DO NOT place it back into the newsletter stand once Mass has concluded. Thank You.

Dear Sister and Brothers,

The first reading for this weekend is from Zachariah 9:9-10. Zachariah, Haggai and Malachi are the last three of the twelve Minor Prophets (they are called ‘minor’ not because of their importance, but because they wrote less than the Major Prophets - Isaiah, Jeremiah, and Ezekiel). When the people were depressed, and almost in despair on seeing the city and the temple of Jerusalem in ruins, as the people returned from Babylon with the exiles about 520 BC, the prophets encouraged them to rebuild and to settle down. They assured them that there was a great future. We have one these encouraging messianic prophecies in today’s first reading. This weekend gospel reading reminds us, “For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.” Surely God is good to us, to put us into this world at this day and age and give us the light of faith, and the knowledge of God and of his loving plans for us, which make the burdens of this life so relatively light and even so reasonable for us. We still have to earn our bread. We still have sickness and pains. We still have death stalking the earth, but with Christ we now see a meaning to all these trials.

The yoke of Christ is not really a yoke but a body of love, which joins us to him, and through him, to our loving Father in heaven. To be a Christian and to have the light of faith to guide our steps is a gift, and a blessing from God, for which we can never thank God enough. “Let us invite Jesus into the boats of our lives,” Pope Francis said. “Let us hand over our fears to him so that he can conquer them.” The pandemic, the Pope said, has exposed “our vulnerability and uncovers those false and superfluous certainties around which we have constructed our daily schedules, our projects, our habits and priorities.” In the midst of the storm, Pope Francis said, God is calling people to faith, which is not just believing God exists, but turning to him and trusting him. As the whole world faces health, and economic challenges, death of loved ones due to COVID 19 pandemic, and people living in lock downs or isolation, let us hear the consoling and encouraging words of Jesus, “For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.”

Many Blessings,

Fr. Anthoni Adimai SdM.
Administrator - Adelaide Cathedral Parish.

Witnesses-Cathedral Parish Youth Group

The Adelaide Cathedral Young Adults Group begins their gatherings again on the 12th July after 6pm Sunday Mass. During our gatherings in the Cathedral Hall on the 2nd and 4th Sundays after Mass, we plan to have some food and socialise from 7:00 – 7:30pm, then from 7:30 – 8:30pm, we will do a combination of prayer, bible study, catechism and group discussions lead by the core group members. We also plan to invite local guest speakers (mostly priests) to come and speak with us on some days. Every 3rd and 4th Sundays, some of us will sing for the 6pm Mass and anyone is more than welcome to join us. On the 5th Sundays, we will have a social gathering. All young adults are welcome and we look forward to seeing you there to build companionship and grow in our faith together.

Baptisms in Adelaide Cathedral Parish

Baptisms are now being celebrated at the St. Francis Xavier Cathedral. Times for each Baptism at St. Francis Xavier Cathedral are 12.45pm and 1.30pm.
The Church will be cleaned after each baptism, so you must be patient and wait at the side of the church to enter. The car park will be open.
