The lines may be busy with staff submitting information to the online booking system over the phone, especially on a Monday. Thank you for your patience and cooperation.
Dear Sister and Brothers,

The second reading this weekend is taken from Romans 6:3-4, 8-11. To understand the message of this reading, we have to dwell into the Sacrament of Baptism. It is the parents of the child, who ask for baptism of their child and they are openly accepting the responsibility of training them in the practice of the faith. The celebrant then welcomes the child into the Christian community and claims them for Christ by signing them with the cross, and he also asks the parents and God-parents to do the same.

The ‘Liturgy of the Word’ then follows. One of the readings is this very text from St. Paul which is read this weekend. In it, St. Paul stresses that we are buried with Christ in baptism. Then we rise with him to a new life – the Christian life, which is a life of children with God. Just as Christ in his human nature will live a life of glory forever in the bosom of the Blessed Trinity, so shall we, live in eternal life of glory.

The prayers recited at the blessing of the font are most instructive as well as inspiring. The renunciation of sin and the profession of faith made by the parents and god parents in the name of the child comes next. This follows the actual baptism with the Trinitarian formula “I baptise you in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

The anointing of the child with holy oil, chrism, symbolises the new Christian is what St. Peter calls a member of a “holy priesthood.” The white garment and the lighted candle (lit from the Easter candle)) are the symbols of the fact that the new Christian is clothed with Christ, “has put on Christ” as St. Paul says. The lighted candle symbolises the light of faith which is to be kept burning brightly all through life.

Christ became man so that we can become children of God. Christ died on the cross so that we can have eternal life. These privileges, so far beyond anything we could hope for, are given to us in this great gift of Christ – the Sacrament of Baptism.

Many Blessings,

Fr. Anthoni Adimai SdM.
Administrator - Adelaide Cathedral Parish.

Parishes of Adelaide Podcast

A new podcast has just been released as one of the ways for the Archdiocese to stay connected during this time, when we are somewhat disconnected. Every Wednesday, we’ll be releasing a new episode, that will feature a pastoral message, the gospel reading and reflection for the coming Sunday, and conversations with different parishes to see how they are staying connected with their congregations at the moment. Parishes of Adelaide is available on all major podcast platforms, including Spotify and Apple Podcasts. If you wish to listen to the podcast but don’t have a smartphone, tablet or computer, we are able to make it available via a CD by contacting E: archdradio@cesa.catholic.edu.au.

Just a reminder that all children need to be accompanied to and from the toilet, ideally by an adult family member. Please be careful of small children when exiting the car park after Mass and a reminder to all parents to watch their children after Mass.

It would be appreciated if you could park at the back of the car park near the creek first and avoid parking in the numbered spaces in front of Ellengowan Hall. There is more car parking available in St. Peter’s Street (across Payneham Rd), and also across the creek (off Nelson St). Thank you for your understanding.
