Dear Sister and Brothers,

The Gospel of this weekend follows the last weekend’s “Parable of the sower and seed.” This weekend, we reflect on the “Parable of wheat and the darnel, mustard seed, and the yeast.” In the parable of wheat and the darnel, the darnel does not destroy the wheat. It only makes it more difficult for the wheat to grow to maturity. So it is with us too. No one can take the faith from us, but living up to it is made more difficult by challenging circumstances and unprecedented influences. If we succumb to and live up the practice of our faith, the fault is ours. God forces no one to serve.

The patience of the farmer in letting the weed grow on until harvest time, exemplifies the infinite mercy of God towards us. The weed could not change its nature, but we can change our ways and God gives us every chance and every help to do this, up to the last moment of our lives. None of us are excluded from heaven because of sins we commit but because we don’t repent of sins while we have the opportunity to do so.

We must learn a double lesson of patience from this parable. First, to be patient with those circumstances and Cross that make our spiritual progress more difficult for us – they are actually helping us to be better persons if we bear them with patience. Second, we must try to imitate the patience God shows in his dealings with us (sinners).

We read in the second reading, “The Spirit comes to help us in our weakness.” Prayer is an act of adoration of God, of thanksgiving for all past and present favours received, of repentance for past offences and negligence, and of petition of spiritual and temporal needs. The Holy Spirit is with us, not only in moving us to pray but actually interceding for us personally, is a source of encouragement and hope for all of us. Let us pray that we may grow in our relationship with God and become like a mustard seed and yeast to be the face of Christ to bear fruits hundred, sixty, and thirty fold.

Many Blessings,

Fr. Anthoni Adimai SDM.
Administrator - Adelaide Cathedral Parish.

Baptisms in Adelaide Cathedral Parish

Baptisms are now being celebrated at the St. Francis Xavier Cathedral. Times for each Baptism at St. Francis Xavier Cathedral are 12.45pm and 1.30pm. The Church will be cleaned after each baptism, so you must be patient and wait at the side of the church to enter. The car park will be open. We will be doing baptism preparation in the hall from 28th July 2020, numbers being 75 and all families that would feel better with online with Zoom meetings before the baptism need to let Mrs Sherlock know before the set monthly date. If you feel that you would like to book your baptism after this date please contact our Sacramental Coordinator Mrs. Jennifer Sherlock on tel:82108242 or email:jsherlock@acp.adelaide.catholic.org.au

Please note that Mrs. Sherlock works only on Monday and Thursday of each week from 9.30am to 3.00pm.

After careful consideration, we have decided to have our first Knit-In for this year on Thursday, 23 July from 10.00am until 1.00pm. All are most welcome to attend. There is plenty of space in the Hall at Stuart Road, Dulwich, to spread out and maintain social distancing during the day, whilst being able to chat with other attendees. We will have the usual tea and coffee with a cake, but we are happy if you prefer to bring your own food and drinking utensils. We will apply the Parish Covid protocol, with particular attention to hand sanitizing, social distancing and keeping a record of those who attend. We look forward to seeing you again after such a long interval. This event is subject to State provisions remaining as they currently are.
