Changes to Congregational Singing

With the advice of SA Health, congregational singing will cease in the Cathedral parish until further notice. This means that no hymn sheets will be provided and the choir and/or cantor will be the only one to lead the singing during the Mass. The parts of the Mass will be spoken, unless they are led by a Choir or Cantor.

We understand the difficulty in coming to this advice, but ensuring the safety of all parishioners is our utmost priority. For further information or clarification please contact the Cathedral Parish on 82328688 or on acp@ACP.adelaide.catholic.org.au

IMPORTANT: Printed copies of the Weekly Newsletter are to be taken home with you once you pick up a copy of the newsletter. Kindly DO NOT place it back into the newsletter stand once Mass has concluded. Thank You for your cooperation.

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

On first hearing today’s Gospel, it’s easy to be shocked by what we hear. Did Jesus just say that? Perhaps it’s just as shocking today as it was when it was first uttered. The Sacred Heart was inevitably a gentleman in the special of the word defined by Blessed John Henry Newman: someone who never gives offence unnecessarily. It’s quite possible that Our Lord was taking the known prejudices of his day, and using them in such a way as to challenge them: deliberately juxtaposing these thoughts with the reality of a woman trying to get help for her daughter.

The disciples wanted this Canaanite woman – a non-Israelite - sent away. She was causing a scene by shouting out after them. The disciples are obviously embarrassed. “Give her what she wants, - they say, - because she is shouting after us!” It seems that almost as soon as Jesus starts speaking the woman is kneeling at his feet – and so Jesus must have seen her earnestness and what he later says is her faith. As Jesus responds to her, he speaks those attitudes of his day that would have been accepted by many; he gives voice to the bigotry between Jew and gentile; chosen and no chosen – and starts giving the reasons why he shouldn’t help this non-Jewish woman. In other words, He starts saying what other would have been thinking.

If Jesus could see the earnestness and faith of the Canaanite woman – she too could see what Jesus was rally saying. And so when Jesus, with irony, compares the gentiles to dogs – she plays along, and enters into the dialogue that Jesus bas begun, she knows he’s not putting her down and so with equal irony she answers, “Ah yes, but even the house dogs eat the scraps that fall from their master’s table.”

Jesus says what he knew the whole time, “Woman you have great faith. Let you wish be granted.” In faith we need to come to the only one who can change things for us. “Lord, have pity on me.” These were the prayers of the Canaanite woman. She inspires us to have the same faith and what she later says is her faith. As Jesus responds to her, he speaks those attitudes of his day that would have been accepted by many; he gives voice to the bigotry between Jew and gentile; chosen and no chosen – and starts giving the reasons why he shouldn’t help this non-Jewish woman. In other words, He starts saying what other would have been thinking.
