Dear Sisters and Brothers,

There is a popular saying that to err is human, while to forgive is divine, to forgive is to participate in a very important attribute and nature of God. That is, His divinity. It is what our God is known for. “He is compassionate, merciful, love and He forgives” (Ps 102). Pope Francis said, “The relationship of vertical benevolence on the part of God is fractured, and is called to be transformed into a new relationship that we live out with our brothers and sisters: a horizontal relationship.”

The first reading of today focuses on forgiveness. First, it reminds us that for our prayer to be answered, we must forgive others. Second, it presupposes that we are all sinners, in need of God’s forgiveness. So, for us to be forgiven, first, we must forgive others. In the second reading, Paul reminds us of something very important. “The life and death of each of us has its influence on the other.” Also, our ability to forgive has a great influence on the other, as well as, on ourselves. Hence, it is important to note that, forgiveness has a double effect. It is a single dose medicine that cures one or many persons at the same time. It liberates the one who is forgiven, as well as, heals the one who forgives.

In the gospel, Christ takes forgiveness to a different and practical level. This unfolds in the dialogue between Peter and Christ. Peter asked a theoretical question: “How many times must I forgive my brother?” Jesus answered him in the most practical way: “seventy-seven times.” Christ’s response, simply reminds us that Christian forgiveness does not have limits. We must forgive all, always and forever as the prayer of Saint Francis of Assissi says: “Wherever there is injury (offence or hurt), forgiveness.” Let us reflect on how many times we have acted like the wicked servant. He was forgiven a great debt, but he could not forgive his neighbour a little debt. He was set free, but he healed his neighbour. The message of this parable is that we must treat others mercifully. We must forgive, because God forgives us every day.

Jesus tells us to forgive all, and forever. What does it mean to forgive all and forever? First, it does not mean: “I forgive you, but we must go our separate ways,” or I forgive you, but I do not want to see you again in my life,” or I forgive you, but I will not forget.” It means something much deeper. It means to restore unity, to believe that it is possible to walk together towards a common goal. It means to heal a wound, without leaving a scar. Finally, he who forgives act like Christ. So, we pray with the same words of Jesus: “Forgive us our offences, as we forgive those who offend us,” let us ask God to help us to be true to these words, by living them practically.

Many Blessings,

Fr. Anthoni Adimai SdM.

Our Community is sponsoring Holy Family Parish, Swan Hill in the Diocese of Ballarat whose Parish Priest is Fr James Kerr (formerly assistant PP in Mildura). I am proposing that we do two things; 1stly, pray our Rosary before the 9.15am Sunday Mass, and 2ndly, offer our time of Eucharistic Adoration on Tuesday mornings to support this Parish. It is hoped that this initiative will provide some encouragement to our fellow Catholics in Swan Hill, who in turn will pray for us. Thank you for your generosity.

If you wish to donate to the regular collections, money for the 1st and 2nd collections can be left in the respective bowls at the door as you exit the church after Sunday Mass.

Today is Child Protection Sunday

Child Protection Sunday provides us with an opportunity to celebrate the presence of children and young people in our Archdiocese and parishes, as we continue to encourage our community to be a safe environment for all. This day forms part of National Child Protection Week, a national initiative to engage members of the community in supporting families and protecting children.

With National Child Protection Week celebrating its 30th year, the 2020 theme is ‘Putting Children First’. Putting children first means prioritising the safety and well-being of children. To grow up well children need to feel safe and loved, have a chance to play and explore, have a say in decisions that affect them, and access to essential things like food, shelter and healthcare.

Child Protection Sunday is a time to not only reflect on the deep impact of abuse, but also to bring light to the initiatives we have in place to safeguard all children and young people. As an Archdiocese, we believe that children and young people have the right to be safe, happy and healthy.

This is our shared responsibility to be a community committed to the care, wellbeing and protection of our children and young people. We welcome you to join us in celebrating this important day today.

Please feel free to pick up a specially designed puzzle set for your child from the entrance. Thank you.
