Dear Sisters and Brothers,

After Jesus entering into the temple and addressing the Pharisees and Scribes about the Kingdom of God with three parables: Parable of the two sons, Parable of the wicked tenants, and the parable of the Wedding banquet, here is the context of Jesus’ command to “render to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s.” Jesus had just returned to Jerusalem for the final time and recently finished sharing several parables with the crowd.

Jesus’ enemies saw an opportunity to put Jesus on the spot in front of His followers. They say to Jesus, “Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?” If Jesus answered, “No,” the Herodians would charge Him with treason against Rome. If He said, “Yes,” the Pharisees would accuse Him of disloyalty to the Jewish nation, and He would lose the support of the crowds.

The denarius was a coin used as the tax money at the time. It was made of silver and featured an image of the emperor with an inscription calling him “divine.” The Jews considered such images idolatry, forbidden by the second commandment. This was another reason why, if Jesus answered, “Yes,” He would be in trouble. His acceptance of the tax as “lawful” could have been seen as a rejection of the second commandment, thus casting doubt on His claim to be the Son of God.

With the coin displayed in front of them, Jesus said, “Whose likeness and inscription is this?” The Herodians and Pharisees, stating the obvious, said, “Caesar’s.” Then Jesus brought an end to their foolish tricks: “Therefore render to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.”

When Jesus said, “Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s,” He was drawing a sharp distinction between two kingdoms. There is a kingdom of this world, and Caesar holds power over it. But there is another kingdom, not of this world, and Jesus is King of that kingdom. We are part of both kingdoms, at least temporarily.

Under Caesar, we have certain obligations that involve material things. Under Christ, we have other obligations that involve things eternal. God has stamped His image on everyone. Let us make sure to give God His due: “Offer ourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life; and offer every part of yourself to him as an instrument of righteousness” (Romans 6:13).

Many Blessings,

Fr. Anthoni Adimai SdM.

Plenary Council
Journey to October 2021 and Beyond

The Archdiocese of Adelaide would like to inform you of an important gathering that is occurring in October on:

Thursday, 29th October 2020 at 7:30pm-9:30pm
Thebarton Community Centre, Corner of South Road and Ashwin Parade TORRENSVILLE
Book your seat at: https://www.trybooking.com/BLTNS

Everyone is welcome. Each stage of the Plenary Council has involved a call to deeper discernment, it is an ongoing process and will take us well beyond the Plenary Council assemblies. Plans are being developed at a Diocesan level towards our own Diocesan Assembly and the formation of a Diocesan Pastoral Council. Recently Archbishop Tim Costelloe, President of the Plenary Council released a paper on his reflection about the Journey of Discernment and Archbishop Patrick O’Regan encourages us to read this.

A short video is also available: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=94CI5NxoDzw&feature=emb_logo

Together, we continue on a journey of discernment, listening to one another, our own sacred tradition and God towards becoming a more Christ-centred Church.

PARTNERS IN PRAYER

Our Community is sponsoring Holy Family Parish, Swan Hill in the Diocese of Ballarat whose Parish Priest is Fr James Kerr (formerly assistant PP in Mildura). I am proposing that we do two things; 1stly, pray our Rosary before the 9.15am Sunday Mass, and 2ndly, offer our time of Eucharistic Adoration on Tuesday mornings to support this Parish. It is hoped that this initiative will provide some encouragement to our fellow Catholics in Swan Hill, who in turn will pray for us. Thank you for your generosity.

Could families who have a child turning 3 next year and who are interested in sending them to Atrium, please register their interest with Lucia Snelling. We are currently looking at numbers for 2021 and will probably offer another session for level 1 (children 3-6 years old). Lucia can be contacted by email lucia.snelling@hotmail.com or by phone on 0407378159.
