Catholic Mission 2020 Appeal
(October is World Mission Month)

The October Catholic Mission Appeal, with its theme inspired by Nehemiah 8:10, “for the joy of the lord is your strength”. This year our appeal focuses on the work of the Church in Cambodia, reaching out to those who have been affected by disability, whilst supporting work in over 1100 dioceses Worldwide and 14 parishes within Australia. Please support Catholic Mission via envelopes, online catholicmission.org.au/Cambodia or Text GIVE to 0408 854 436 (include your parish name in the notes).

For more information contact Tony Johnston, Diocesan Director Adelaide Archdiocese on 0407168002.

There will be a special collection this weekend October 25th to support the World Mission Day Appeal across our Parish. Thank you for your generous support.

Plenary Council
Journey to October 2021 and Beyond

The Archdiocese of Adelaide would like to inform you of an important gathering that is occurring in October on:

Thursday, 29th October 2020 at 7:30pm-9:30pm
Thebarton Community Centre, Corner of South Road and Ashwin Parade TОРRENSVILLE

Book your seat at: https://www.trybooking.com/BLTNS

Everyone is welcome. Each stage of the Plenary Council has involved a call to deeper discernment, it is an ongoing process and will take us well beyond the Plenary Council assemblies. Plans are being developed at a Diocesan level towards our own Diocesan Assembly and the formation of a Diocesan Pastoral Council. Together, we continue on a journey of discernment, listening to one another, our own sacred tradition and God towards becoming a more Christ-centred Church.

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

This Sunday, the Liturgy presents us with a brief, but very important Gospel passage (Mt 22:34-40). Matthew the Evangelist recounts that the Pharisees assemble in order to put Jesus to the test. One of them, a doctor of the Law, asks him this question: “Teacher, which one is the great commandment in the law?” (v. 36).

It is an insidious question, because more than 600 precepts are mentioned in the Law of Moses. How should the great commandment be distinguished among these? But Jesus responds without hesitation: “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind”. And he adds: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself” (vv. 37, 39).

This response of Jesus is not to be taken for granted, because, among the numerous precepts of the Hebrew Law, the most important were the 10 Commandments, communicated directly by God to Moses, as the conditions of the Covenant with the people. But Jesus wants to make it understood that without love for God and for our neighbour there is no true fidelity to this Covenant with the Lord. You may do many good things, fulfil many precepts, many good things, but if you do not have love, this serves no purpose.

The Bible says: the widow, the orphan and the stranger, the migrant that is, the most lonely and defenceless people (cf. Ex 22:20-21). In responding to those Pharisees who question him, Jesus also tries to help them put their religiosity in order, to distinguish what truly matters from what is less important. Jesus says: “On these two commandments depend all the law and the prophets” (Mt. 22:40). They are the most important, and the others depend on these two. And Jesus lived his life precisely in this way: preaching and practising what truly matters and is essential, namely, love. Love gives impulse and fruitfulness to life and to the journey of life: without love, both life and faith remain sterile.

What Jesus proposes in this Gospel passage is a wonderful ideal, which corresponds to our heart’s most authentic desire. Indeed, we were created to love and to be loved. God, who is Love, created us to make us participants in his life, to be loved by him and to love him, and with him, to love all other people.

This is God’s “dream” for mankind. And to accomplish it we need his grace; we need to receive within us the capacity to love which comes from God himself. Jesus offers himself to us in the Eucharist for this very reason. In it we receive Jesus in the utmost expression of his love, when he offered himself to the Father for our salvation.

May the Blessed Virgin help us to welcome into our life the “great commandment” of love of God and neighbour. Indeed, if we have experienced it ever since we were children, we will never cease converting ourselves to it and putting it into practice in the various situations in which we find ourselves.

Many Blessings,
Fr. Anthoni Adimai SdM.

As a public health measure the Archbishop has also asked Catholics to refrain from congregational singing at Mass for the present. The Covid Marshall for the 9.15am Sunday Mass is Rob Marsh, and for the 5pm Sunday Mass is Peter Balan.

There is a special collection this Sunday in support of Catholic Mission. Thank you for your generosity.

Young Adults group meets tonight, beginning with Vespers and a Holy Hour at 6pm followed by pizza and a talk on prayer at 7.15pm All Welcome.

The Holy Name Men’s Group meets this Wednesday evening at the presbytery at Dulwich at 7pm for the Rosary and a talk. This month’s talk will be on St Joseph. All Welcome.

Fr Sofatzis continues his series of weekly classes on Life Everlasting (The Four Last Things) in the Meeting Room on Thursday evenings at 7.30pm. All Welcome.

Our All Saints Day community picnic is directly after the morning Mass next Sunday 1st November. Please take a flyer for details. BYO chair, rug, salad/desert, alcohol. BBQ, soft drinks and games provided. Prizes for the best dressed girl and boy saint.

The SA parliament is attempting to legalise abortion up to birth. Please take home a copy of the Bishops’ statement on this. Visit www.austfamily.com.au for more details, and for instructions on how to email your local MP.

We have this week installed a Baby Change Cubicle in women’s toilets. (The 1st cubicle in the outside toilet block). The men’s outside toilets are now permanently locked on Sundays. Renovations of the toilet block are planned for next year.

Fr Wee is giving a retreat for women this December and a retreat for men in Lent next year. Both retreats will be held just outside Sydney. Please take a flyer for more details.

PARTNERS IN PRAYER

Our Community is sponsoring Holy Family Parish, Swan Hill in the Diocese of Ballarat whose Parish Priest is Fr James Kerr (formerly assistant PP in Mildura). I am proposing that we do two things; 1stly, pray our Rosary before the 9.15am Sunday Mass, and 2ndly, offer our time of Eucharistic Adoration on Tuesday mornings to support this Parish. It is hoped that this initiative will provide some encouragement to our fellow Catholics in Swan Hill, who in turn will pray for us. Thank you for your generosity.

Latin Mass Community

Could families who have a child turning 3 next year and who are interested in sending them to Atrium, please register their interest with Lucia Snelling. We are currently looking at numbers for 2021 and will probably offer another session for level 1 (children 3-6 years old). Lucia can be contacted by email lucia.snelling@hotmail.com or by phone on 0407378159.

If you wish to donate to the regular collections, money for the 1st and 2nd collections can be left in the respective buckets at the door as you exit the church after Sunday mass.

There is a Holy Hour every Tuesday morning from 10am – 11am. Please see the community blogspot for other information.

Please remember the sick in your prayers, especially Christopher Boast, Elisabeth Duluk, Anne Russell, Miki Caputo, Terry Hockley (Jess Marsh’s father), Thomas Smyth, Triss Roberts, Charlene Armour, Germaine Miernik, Vincenza Martucci (Ines Barson’s mother). Please remember also the recently deceased, especially Hilda Gabrielli, and those whose anniversaries occur about this time.

Love Adelaide Abortion Bill info night

The South Australian Parliament is considering legalising abortion up until birth, yet the survival rates of premature babies continue to increase. Love Adelaide is holding an information evening about the proposed legislation on November 2 from 7pm-9pm at Temple Christian College. Due to COVID-19 attendees must RSVP to: https://www.loveadelaide.org.au/events2020

Abortion Bill weekly Wednesday Vigil

Dear parishioners a recently tabled Bill has been introduced into the South Australian Parliament. If approved, the Bill would allow abortion to be conducted up to birth! We have been given consent to hold a vigil on the steps of Parliament House in opposition to this Bill every Wednesday from noon to 3 pm. Please come and join us, if only for an hour or so. Thank you. Patrick (more info: 0414 7679 635).

Bishops’ statement on Abortion Bill

Archbishop Patrick O’Regan and Bishop Greg O’Kelly SJ have issued a joint statement expressing their concern over the Termination of Pregnancy Bill, saying the removal of current safeguards would further increase the rate of abortion on demand and put vulnerable women at greater risk of economic and social coercion. The bishops said the provision for abortions to take place from 22 weeks and six days up until full term, with the approval of two medical practitioners, was deeply concerning. Parishioners are encouraged to contact their local MP to urge them to vote against the Bill.

Safeguarding Children

Just a reminder that all children need to be accompanied to and from the toilet, ideally by an adult family member. Kindly ensure that children are supervised by an adult family member in the carparks at all times.
