

ADELAIDE CATHEDRAL PARISH

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year C

13th February 2021

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

As we reflect on the Beatitudes this weekend, let us reflect from the Catechism of the Catholic Church 1716-1729, teaching on the Beatitudes. The Beatitudes are at the heart of Jesus' preaching.

They take up the promises made to the chosen people. The Beatitudes fulfil the promises by ordering them no longer merely to the possession of a territory, but to the Kingdom of heaven.

The Beatitudes respond to the natural desire for happiness. The desire is of divine origin; God has placed it in the human heart in order to draw man to the One who alone can fulfil it.

The Beatitudes reveal the goal of human existence, the ultimate end of human acts: God calls us to his own beatitude. This vocation is addressed to each individual personally, but also to the Church as a whole, the new people made up of those who have accepted the promise and live from it in faith.

God put us in the world to know, to love, and to serve him, and so to come to paradise. Beatitudes make us "partakers of the divine nature" and of eternal life. With Beatitudes, man enters into the glory of Christ and into the joy of the Trinitarian life. The Beatitude we are promised, confronts us with decisive moral choices. It invites us to purify our hearts of bad instincts and to seek the love of God above all else.

It teaches us that true happiness is not found in riches or well-being, in human fame or power, or in any human achievement — however, beneficial it may be — such as science, technology, and art, or indeed in any creature, but in God alone, the source of every good and of all love. The Beatitudes respond to the desire for happiness that God has placed in the human heart.

The Beatitudes teach us the final end to which God calls us: the Kingdom, the vision of God, participation in the divine nature, eternal life, filiation, and rest in God. The beatitude of eternal life is a gratuitous gift of God. It is supernatural, as is the grace that leads us there.

Many Blessings,

The theme of Project Compassion 2022 is 'For all future generations'. Taken from the scripture passage 'When God gave his covenant to Noah and every living creature, for all future generations'.

This theme connects to the Cry of the earth/Cry of the poor focus from the Bishops Conference, and our Catholic Earthcare work. Caritas Australia brings us 'Stories from the field' – the true stories of the people benefitting from Caritas programs. The main story this year is of 12-year-old Anatercia from Mozambique and other stories include Biru from India, Janice from Australia, Rosalie from the DRC, and Shaniella from the Solomon Islands. We would like to thank all our parishioners for supporting Project Compassion 2021 and request you to visit the website www.caritas.org.au/project-compassion/ for more details on how your contributions have changed lives.
