21 May: Justice For Refugees SA

The Federal election is on 21st May and since the beginning of the year the J4RSA Management Committee, supporters and members, have been working tirelessly to engage directly with sitting MPs, senators and candidates in key seats around SA. This engagement has also included meeting with and writing to candidates and political influencers, as well raising questions in local candidate forums. We have held workshops on How to engage with your MP for young supporters. As a focal point of this engagement the committee developed the Four Priorities for Change with supporting summary documents, Economic Resources List, and Health Impacts on Refugees in Detention. Along with this South Australian-based activity, Justice for Refugees SA has been working in collaboration with more than 140 organisations around Australia to raise awareness of the issues facing refugees and people seeking asylum, with voters and our future federal politicians. The support of the Catholic dioceses of SA has enabled Justice for Refugees SA to do this work, giving voice to community concerns directly to our political decision makers, building a foundation for long-term engagement with elected MPs and senators post-election. For more information or how you can become involved please email: info@justiceforrefugees.org or kindly visit <https://justiceforrefugeessa.org/>

22 May: Beatification of Pauline Jaricot

The beatification of Pauline Jaricot, founder of the Propagation of the Faith Society, will take place on 22 May 2022. It is 400 years since the establishment of the Congregation for the Evangelisation of Peoples, 200 years since the founding of the Propagation of the Faith Society, and 100 years since the work of Catholic Mission was granted Pontifical status. Pauline Jaricot created a movement that made enormous change in the world. This was done simply, by asking people to give a penny when they gathered in their small groups (a penny in the early 1800s is probably equivalent to the cost of a cappuccino today). Donations were sent to foreign places to serve the poor of her time. This year's Propagation of the Faith appeal will be held on Sunday 22nd May in all churches of our Parish.
