

ADELAIDE CATHEDRAL PARISH

Sixth Sunday of Easter - Year A

14th May 2023

Today's Gospel takes us back to the Upper Room. During the Last Supper, before confronting his passion and death on the cross, Jesus promises the Apostles the gift of the Holy Spirit, who will have the task of teaching and recalling Jesus' words to the community of disciples. Jesus says: "the Counsellor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you" (Jn 14:26). Teach and recall. This is what the Holy Spirit does in our hearts.

At the moment in which he is about to return to the Father, Jesus foretells of the coming of the Spirit who will first teach the disciples to understand the Gospel ever more fully, in order to welcome it in their existence and to render it living and operative by their witness.

While he is about to entrust to the Apostles — which in fact means "envoys" — the mission of taking the Gospel to all the world, Jesus promises that they will not be alone. The Holy Spirit, the Counsellor, will be with them, and will be beside them, moreover, will be within them, to protect and support them. Jesus returns to the Father but continues to accompany and teach his disciples through the gift of the Holy Spirit.

The second aspect of the Holy Spirit's mission consists in helping the Apostles to remember Jesus' words. The Spirit has the task of reawakening the memory, recalling Jesus' words. The divine Teacher has already communicated all that he intended to entrust to the Apostles: with Him, the Word made flesh, the revelation is complete.

The Spirit will recall Jesus' teachings in the various concrete circumstances of life, so that they may be put into practice. That is precisely what still happens today in the Church, guided by the light and the power of the Holy Spirit, so that he may bring to everyone the gift of salvation, which is the love and mercy of God. For example, each day when you read — as I have advised you — a passage, a passage of the Gospel, ask the Holy Spirit: "Let me understand and remember these words of Jesus".

We are not alone: Jesus is close to us, among us, within us! His new presence in history happens through the gift of the Holy Spirit, through whom it is possible to instil a living relationship with Him, the Crucified and Risen One. The Spirit, flowing within us through the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation, acts in our life.

He guides us in the way to think, to act, to distinguish between what is good and what is bad; he helps us to practice the charity of Jesus, his giving of himself to others, especially to the most needy. We are not alone!

The sign of the presence of the Holy Spirit is also the peace that Jesus gives to his disciples: "My peace I give to you" (v. 27). It is different from what mankind hopes for or tries to achieve.

Thank you Dulwich/Burnside Knitters Group

The 2023 Knitting Season for the Dulwich/Burnside Knitters Group started extremely well with a gathering of about 15 people attending and enjoying the sumptuous morning tea. Others are busily knitting, stitching and edging at home. We would like to sincerely thank all the people from Dulwich/Burnside and further a field who generously donate 8 ply wool or cash to buy wool for us to continue our works to keep the homeless and those struggling to make ends meet warm over the winter months. 25 rugs, 45 beanies and 4 teddy bears made up the total of our first meeting of the year.

Our group has been going for nearly 20 years and approximately 100 rugs per year are donated to the various groups who provide help to the needy. Our group welcomed George and Lawson Shepherd to our first 2023 meeting. George wrote a poem about his late wife Rosemary, a beloved member of our group, which he read to us. George also brought along Rosemary's last pieces of knitting that he had sewn up to make a cushion. Rosemary was a long time member of the knitting group.

It is an informal group and if anyone would like to join us, we work at the Dulwich Hall on Stuart Ave, Dulwich every 4th Thursday of the month from 10am-3pm, commencing in April and ending in September. Some people also work from home and send finished articles via group members. For more information you can contact Julie Dow on Mob: 0468 636 191 or Cheryl Reeve on mob: 0417 015 338.
