

ADELAIDE CATHEDRAL PARISH

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year A

18th June 2023

Give freely

Give freely that which you have received freely. We are called to serve and love our brothers and sisters in the same way that God has done with us. Christians cannot remain stationary, since our way of life impels us to hit the road, always. Jesus has already given us our mission: "As you go, make this proclamation: 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, drive out demons."

Christian life is for service. It saddens us to find Christians who at the beginning of their conversion, or awareness of being Christian, serve and are open to serve the people of God, but who later end up making use of the people of God. This causes much harm to God's people. Our vocation is to 'serve', not to 'make use of'. Christian life is lived gratuitously. "Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give," was how Jesus described the core of salvation.

Salvation cannot be bought because God saves us free of charge and requires no payment. As God has done with us, so we are to do with others. And this gratuity of God is one of the most beautiful things. Realise that the Lord is full of gifts for us. He asks just one thing: that our hearts be open.

When we say 'Our Father' and we pray, we open our heart, allowing this gratuitousness to enter. Often when we need some spiritual grace, we say: 'Well, now I will fast, do penance, pray a novena...' Fine, but be careful: this is not done to 'pay' or 'buy' grace. We do it to open our hearts so that grace might enter. Grace is freely given.

All God's gifts are given without cost. And sometimes the heart folds in on itself and remains closed, and it is no longer able to receive such freely given love. We should not bargain with God. Let us Christians, and especially pastors and bishops, give freely and not try to sell God's graces.

In our spiritual life we always run the risk of slipping up on the question of payment, even when speaking with the Lord, as if we needed to bribe the Lord. No! That is not the correct path... I make a promise, in order to expand my heart to receive what is already there, waiting for us free of charge.

This relationship of gratuitousness with God is what will help us to have the same rapport with others, whether it be in Christian witness, Christian service, or the pastoral work of those who guide the people of God. We do so along the way. Christian life means walking. Preach and serve, but do not make use of others. Serve and give freely that which you have received freely.

We join the Australian Bishops and the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholic Council in celebrating Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday. As Australians, we are fortunate to share our home with the world's oldest continuing culture.

On this day, we honour and acknowledge God's presence in the lives of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples, who have upheld their rich and diverse cultural traditions for thousands of years. We give thanks for the deep and enduring legacy of these ancient peoples and their contributions to the continent.
