

All Souls' Day Reflection

As we celebrate All Souls' Day, we are reminded that death is not the end. We commemorate all the faithful who have passed on from this earth, and we recognise the great hope we have of resurrection. The Book of Wisdom reminds us that the souls of the just are in the hand of God, and they are in peace. Those who live a righteous (i.e. just) life can, in fact, have immortality and abide with [God] in love forever.

We remember this reality and have hope for our loved ones who have passed away in faith. We also are reminded that heaven is the goal of all our lives. We are called to live a righteous life through trusting and obeying God. If we remain in friendship with God, we can abide with Him forever in heaven.

Death is not the end, but truly a beginning. God desires for all of us to be in union with Him for all of eternity. It is up to us to say yes to this call or not. Let us all remember that there is more to life than the here and now. Let us live with eternity in mind, so that we may be among the faithful who will spend eternity with God in heaven. God offers us everything we need to get to heaven, but how will we respond?

In John's Gospel, we hear from the lips of Jesus himself the promise of eternal life for those who come to Him. In fact, we see here that this is the purpose of Jesus' coming. The Son, who is the Second Person of the Holy Trinity, became man in order to offer salvation to humanity. Jesus came to call all people to Himself and not to lose anyone who the Father wills to be saved.

Jesus brought about salvation through His death on the cross. Jesus died for all and desires for all to be saved. But we must respond to that gift being offered to us. Jesus said, 'Everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life.' This evidences that the way we respond to the offer of salvation is through faith. In commemorating all the faithful departed today, we are reminded of the key component of faith.

We have a great hope for the eternal rest of our loved ones in heaven because of their faith. Faith is not merely a onetime choice, but an ongoing yes to God. Faith is active and obedient. In faith, we choose to follow God and live according to His will. And if we have this faith that is, in fact, a gift from God, we can have the great hope of eternal life with Him forever.

So, throughout the month of November, let us be reminded of the reality of heaven and hold great hope for our loved ones who have departed this life in faith. And let us also remember the reality of heaven to which God is inviting us. God desires a relationship with each of us and He wants us to spend all of eternity with Him.

Will we respond to His invitation given to us in Christ by living a life of faith? Will we say yes to the call to be with Him for all eternity by living our lives for God here and now? Let us all seek after heaven and hold great hope that it may be attained. May the souls of all the faithful departed, rest in peace.

*Many blessings,
Fr. Anthoni Adimai SdM.*

5 Nov: Prison Sunday

In the Year of Mercy (2016), Pope Francis instituted Prison Sunday. The first Sunday of November is now internationally recognised in this way. We come together to remember our brothers and sisters who are incarcerated around the world. It is a powerful witness to our faith to turn our minds towards those who are separated from families and communities and to let them know they are not forgotten. They remain part of The Body of Christ and despite the separation, a part of our society.

Pope Francis reflects: Hope is a gift of God. We must ask for it. There is no corner of our heart that cannot be touched by God's love. Whenever someone makes a mistake, the Father's mercy is all the more present, awakening repentance, forgiveness, reconciliation and peace. (6th November 2016).

9 Nov: Remembrance of the Shoah

All are welcome to commemorate the events of the Shoah on Thursday, 9 November at 7.30pm in St Francis Xavier's Cathedral. The Holocaust Museum (next door to the Cathedral) will also be open from 4pm to 7.15pm before the service for all to visit. You will be moved by the stories shared and the beautiful voices of the Jewish Communities Choir who will lead the service on the evening. For more information please email events@adelaide.catholic.org.au or call 8210 8220.

12 Nov: Journey — A Celebration of South Australia's Italian Migrants

A special Mass will be held on 12 November at 3pm in St Francis Xavier's Cathedral. The event will be held during the Adelaide Italian Festival week and will honour Italian immigrants and their contributions to the life and vitality in South Australia.
